

Yorkshire people

Psychic to the stars

by Natalie Glanvill

POSH Spice is going to have another baby – and it will be a girl! Who says so? A Selby psychic, whose career is really hotting up.

Julie Cryer, of Leeds Road, is sharing her extrasensory skills with thousands of readers nationwide as resident expert with best-selling Heat gossip magazine, allowing her to spotlight celebrity lifestyles.

Posh and Becks as well as Big Brother householders are among high-fliers to be subjected to her powers. She has also analysed such big name performers as actor Andy Dunn from dinnerladies and Mark Addy of The Full Monty fame as well as TV presenters Dale Winton, Gaby Yorath and several soap stars.

Julie, who claims she has always had the gift of seeing the dead – in the style of hit Hollywood film Sixth Sense – became a psychic in her late teens. She would tell friends and family things she had seen in the future ... and became convinced of her unique talent when they came true!

The 43-year-old is “thrilled” her work is being recognised by London media moguls who became aware of her skills through word of mouth, which is how Julie prefers to be recommended.

SELBY psychic Julie Cryer (above), who has several big name clients including Dale Winton (left) and Gaby Yorath (top right), predicts Victoria Beckham will have a baby girl next year.

“There are no limits to what I am able to see.

“However I still insist on discretion and tact, even more so in the public eye.”

Has she ever foreseen her own future? “While working as a civil servant in Castleford many years ago I would often discuss with my colleagues events happening to me today.

“I can predict my own future as well as that of my clients.”

The mother-of-one’s work as a medium has affected her home life because “I see this as a vocation rather than a job.”

Her builder husband Richard has supported her throughout.

She strives to maintain as normal a life as possible for her son Davey.

Two years ago she moved to a Leeds office to make her work more corporate-based and felt operating away from home added a new dimension to her work.

Her verdict on Victoria and David Beckham’s high profile relationship revealed: “Their immediate future is good.”

And she forecast: “She’ll announce she’s pregnant next year and that it will be a girl. There is a lot of goodness in their relationship over the next two years.

“When they are separated he misses her but she becomes more independent. They’ve made a great advert for marriage and they inspire couples to aspire.”

And what does Julie think the future holds for her? “Watch this space! As the saying goes ‘You ain’t seen nothing yet!’”

